March 2017

www.cuhc.org.au

Welcome to season 2017 and the first edition of our newsletter.

Preseason is well underway with the top squads running and turf training. If you are yet to get down to training please check the website at <https://cuhc.org.au/events/> for the next session. Anyone interested is welcome.

What a year 2017 has already been. Here is what's new:

- New name – we are no longer affiliated with Trinity College and Pirates remains as our nickname.
- New Logo – check out our new logos below.
- New uniforms – as you should all be aware we have new uniforms for 2017. We move to be the first club in Perth to wear the same uniforms throughout the grades. Can't wait to see everyone in their new uniforms. Tag us in any posts – we will put our favourites in our next newsletter.
- New head coaches.
- New major sponsors.

Bunbury Super 9's

Curtin Pirates entered the Bunbury Super 9's competition in support of brain cancer. This is the second time Pirates have competed in this comp, with the players having a great weekend down south.

Meet our new premier league coaches...

Kate Starre is an ex-hockeyroo who represented Australia over 3 Olympics bagging 2 Olympic gold medals. Kate will be head coach of our women's team, assisted by Dylan Wotherspoon. Kate has played for Pirates for her domestic career in Perth. So it's great to have her back on board.

Charlie Gaudoin has been coaching in WA since 1970 and has coached state sides since 1999. Charlie will be our men's head coach assisted by Jonatahn Nordmann. Many of the boys have received coaching from Charlie making him a great fit for the club.

Curtin University O'Day

We were represented at O'Day which was a huge success. Thank you to everyone who helped out manning our stall and promoting the club.

Have you met our major sponsors?

We are thrilled to have these two major sponsors on board for the next three years.
